See the e-mail below I just sent to Kelley. The source is Ex. 6 PP / Ex. 7(C)

We asked Mr. Rochester about other sites where he was operating in our 3007 letter (Question 5), and he stated "We only operate in one location."

Subject: Recycletronics - New Information

I just received a phone call from a source that would like to remain anonymous. Aaron Rochester, Recycletronics, is currently storing partially processed e-waste in 1 cubic yard cardboard boxes on pallets in a warehouse (truck terminal) located at 1530 Steuben. The waste is located in the eastern half of the terminal. The source said the waste had been there for about 2-3 months and there were at least 100 pallets inside the terminal. I asked how Mr. Rochester gained access without permission, the source said that you can just open the overhead doors, they aren't locked. Mr. Rochester had previously looked at this site as a potential rental, but never leased the space and does not have permission to be using the site.
